

Category		Trail Name	Description	Area / Getting There
Starting Out	●	Crooked Mile	Wide open, groomed; not too crowded and excellent for working on the basics	Access from the Sunnyside or Albion Lifts, it weaves between the two chairs
Learning	●	Patsey Marley	Experience loosely spaced trees in the midst of a gentle, wide slope	Take Crooked Mile and look out on your skier's right about one-third of the way down
Burner	■	Rock N Roll	Spans the peak to the base of Supreme; often groomed but bumps and trees will keep you on your toes	Exit Supreme to the right to Upper Big Dipper and lookout left for Rock N Roll
Scenic Cruiser	■	Big Dipper	Generally groomed, Upper/Big Dipper is long, yet wide and gentle with views of Devil's Castle the whole way	Exit Supreme to the right for Upper Big Dipper and connect to Big Dipper
Bumps (Learning)	■	Saddle Traverse	Gentle, shorter slope with workable bumps, perfect for learning while weaving in and out	Exit Collins to the right to Mambo and lookout right for Saddle Traverse
Fresh Powder	■	Ballroom	Authentic bowl but you don't need to be an Expert; its well worth it, steepens moving further right	Exit Collins to the right and follow the traverse to a line you like
Showing Off	◆	Extrovert	Steep; When groomed show everyone how fast you are; in powder, look sharp in the bumps	Directly underneath the Sugarloaf Lift; take a look on the way up to prepare
Powdery Glades	◆	Catherine's Area	A fluffy playground with soft snow, good variety of terrain and endless gladed runs to explore	Exit Supreme to the left, requires a 4-5 minute walk, continue past Supreme Bowl, traverse further for softer snow
Steeper Glades	◆	Wildcat Area Westward Ho Wildcat Bowl	Perfectly spaced glades on steep, but workable terrain; the slow lift keeps crowds out, leaving lots of soft stuff	Exit Wildcat to the right and traverse along the ridgeline; proceed past Punch Bowl, look for signs or drop in when you see a pleasing line
Light & Fluffy	◆	Yellow Trail	A powder paradise, wide open bowl with ample opportunities to make fresh tracks	Exit Collins to the left, follow High Race Course and look out on your skier's right
Steep	◆	Alf's High Rustler	Visible from town, this legendary run has a 45-degree pitch and drops 1,000 vertical feet; its narrow so make sure your jump turns are sharp	From the top of Collins, follow High Traverse as far as you can, past West Rustler and Greely Bowl
Chutes	◆	Baldy Chutes	Series of gullies from the top of Baldy Peak; Main Chute (44-degree pitch) is the most accessible and opens into Ballroom	Exit Sugarloaf to the right towards East Baldy; this is a strenuous ~25-45 minute hike, worth it for Experts when conditions are right (often closed)
