

TOP TRAIL PICKS

Category		Trail Name	Description	Area / Getting There
Easy Scenic		Lower Tamarack	Wide open, groomed, mostly a slow zone, optimal for learning	Exit American Express and take "Underpass" to skier's right; its directly underneath the slower Tamarac Triple
Longest Way		Mike's Way - Upper West Meadow - Lower Wanderer	~3 miles; From the Summit to the base, scenic views with some flattish areas	From the Summit, head away from the main face (past the bear) and follow large yellow "Easy Street" sign
Scenic Cruiser		Lower Middlebrook	Longer, wide open groomer on the Sun Bowl side	Exit Sunrise Express to the left and follow the signs
Groomers		Sunrise Supertrail or Black Bear	Wide groomer with some steeper sections and centered tree clusters / Groomed, moderately pitched option from the Summit	From the top of Sunrise Express, exit left / From the Summit, stay to your skier's right (past Chute)
Bumps (Learning)		Suntanner (Park)	Medium sized, manufactured bumps, not too steep and an area to bail	Exit American Express to the left and follow Underpass, look for the big orange sign
Glades		Eclipse	So many options, hard to pick one, but pitch combined with tree spacing makes this one of our favorites	Exit Sundown Express to the left and enter just below Ski Patrol HQ
Burner		Upper to Lower Standard	Together, these broad runs offer a direct route from Summit to Base; groomed with a moderate pitch	From the Summit, head down underneath the Gondola
Cruiser		Upper Kidder Brook	Not too steep, this run receives ample sunlight, has great snow-making and is perfect for carving big turns	From the Summit, stay all the way to your skier's right (past the Shooting Star Lift)
Bumps (Advanced)		World Cup	Site of the FIS World Mogul Competition in 1978 (the first in the East)	From the Summit, stay left on Upper Lift Line to Get My Drift, then follow Upper Slalom Grade and stay to skier's left
Glades (Steeper)		Moondance	Head here when there is natural snow, it tends to stick and its great fun	From the Summit, head down Black Bear and look out on skier's left
Short & Steep		Bear Down	Short, but steep and by the end of the day, the bumps can be large	From the Summit, follow Black Bear and take the first cutt-off on your skier's right, connects to Sunrise Supertrail
